PART 1 - Political expenditure for financial year 1 July 2010 to 30 June 2011

You must complete this section if you incurred more than $11,500 in political expenditure in the 2010-2011 financial year.

Record the total amount for each of the following categories of expenditure on goods and services provided during the financial year, even if payment for these goods and services was made outside of the financial year.

Expenditure for purposes other than these categories is not political expenditure as defined by the Act and does not need to be reported.

1. Public expression of views on a political party, candidate in an election or member of the Federal Parliament by any means	$0
2. Printing, production, publication or distribution of any material (other than that at item 1 or item 5 below) that is required by section 328 or 328A of the Act to include a name, address or place of business*	$699,265
3. Broadcast of political matter in relation to which particulars are required to be announced under subclause 4(2) of Schedule 2 to the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 	$1,550,617
4. Carrying out opinion polling or other research relating to a Federal election or the voting intentions of electors	$28,680
5. Public expression of views on an issue in a Federal election by any means (other than those at items 1, 2, 3, or 4)	$2,776,233
TOTAL	$5,054,795

* What do sections 328 and 328A do?

Section 328 of the Act requires all electoral advertisements to include the name and address of the person who authorised the advertisement and, except in the case of newspapers, the name and place of business of the printer at the end.

Section 328A imposes a similar requirement on electoral advertisements on the internet.

Electoral advertisements must be authorised at all times, not just during an election period.

What does subclause 4(2) of Schedule 2 to the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 do?

This requires the identification of those who have requested that political matter be broadcast. Guidelines at www.acma.gov.au are relevant.

This applies at all times, not just during an election period.
