Where a person or organisation incurred more than $13,200 for one or more of the five categories of political expenditure (listed below) in the 2016-17 financial year, the person or organisation must disclose the amount of political expenditure incurred for each category.

For each category of political expenditure, record the total amount incurred on goods and services provided during the financial year, even if payment for these goods and services was made outside of the financial year.

Expenditure for purposes other than these categories is not political expenditure as defined by the Commonwealth Electoral Act 1918 (the Electoral Act) and does not need to be reported.

Total	$762,560

* What do sections 328, 328A and 328B do?

Section 328 of the Electoral Act requires all electoral advertisements to include the name and address of the person who authorised the advertisement and, except in the case of newspapers, the name and place of business of the printer at the end.

Section 328A of the Electoral Act imposes a similar requirement on electoral advertisements on the internet.

Section 328B of the Electoral Act imposes a similar requirement in relation to how-to-vote cards.

Electoral advertisements must be authorised at all times, not just during an election period.

What does subclause 4(2) of Schedule 2 to the Broadcasting Services Act 1992 do?

This requires the identification of those who have requested that political matter be broadcast.

Guidelines at www.acma.gov.au are relevant.

This applies at all times, not just during an election period.
